GI Ltd. CCTV Privacy Notice

GI Ltd. considers the use of CCTV a necessary tool to help reduce crime, reduce the fear of crime and improve the safety of our customers and staff.

We have installed CCTV systems in some of our pubs as a condition of our the license and for the purposes of customer and staff safety and crime prevention and detection

We will only disclose CCTV images to others who intend to use the images for the purposes stated above. CCTV images will not be released to the media for entertainment purposes or placed on the internet.

Images captured by CCTV will not be kept for longer than 31 days. However, on occasions there may be a need to keep images for longer, for example where a crime is being investigated.

F&F Ltd. considers that CCTV will achieve these objectives:

1. To assist in the reduction of crime, anti-social behaviour and the fear of crime on our premises
2. To facilitate the apprehension and prosecution of offenders.
3. To assist in the prevention and detection of crime and disorder committed in our premises.
4. To reduce the theft of and from cars in car parks
5. To improve the personal safety of our staff and customers

The system will also be operated in accordance with the 12 guiding principles set out in the surveillance camera codes of practice 2013.

You have the right to see CCTV images of yourself and be provided with a copy of the images.

Grand Imperial LTD. GDPR PRIVACY STATEMENT

We take privacy seriously. The purpose of this statement is to set out the principles governing our use of personal data we may obtain about you.

Who we are

GI Ltd. is the “Controller” of the personal data you provide us. We work closely with our subsidiaries, agents, advisors, suppliers, contractors and partners to provide exceptional levels of service and support. More information about who we are is here.

The information we collect

In most circumstances we will only collect basic personal data about you, which does not include any special categories of personal data about you (known as “sensitive personal data”). This data may however include name, email and/or other contact details.

If you are unable to find what you are looking for in this privacy notice please contact us – info@theoldcrownpublichouse.co.uk - with your query.

Sharing information

All the personal data is received and processed in the UK by our employees, agents, advisors, suppliers, contractors and/or partners. Grand Imperial Ltd. will not trade, sell or share your personal identifiable data for use unless we are required by law to do so.

Please be aware however that your data may be stored on a cloud based system or on servers based outside the UK but within the EU.

How long we keep information

We keep your personal data for no longer than reasonably necessary for the purposes for which it is provided. We will only keep personal data for longer if authorised by you or if we are required to do so by law.

If, for example, you have authorised use of your personal data for marketing purposes, this will be kept with us until you notify us that you no longer wish for us to use it.

Your rights

If you wish to see, correct, update, transfer or delete any of the personal data that we hold about you, please write to GDPR at GI Ltd. 33 New Oxford Street, WC1A 1BH with your request. If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal data, you can contact our Commercial Director at the address above who will arrange for investigation of the matter. We recommend that correspondence is sent recorded delivery and/or with proof of postage.

Notification of changes

We may occasionally modify our privacy policies, notices and statement. When this happens, we will provide details as to the changes on this web page or via the links on this web page, at the point of data collection or by contacting you directly. We will not significantly change how we use information you have already given to us without your prior agreement.

Cookies

We also collect information about you using Cookies. A Cookie is an element of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then store it on your system. We use Cookies on this website to allow us to understand who has seen which pages and advertisements, to determine how frequently particular pages are visited and to determine the most popular areas of our website. We use cookies so that we can give you a better experience when you return to our web site. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies. Read our Cookie Policy on our web site for more information about how we use Cookies. You do not have to accept Cookies, and you should read the information that came with your browser software to see how you can set up your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie.
