WELCOME TO THE OLD CROWN

33 NEW OXFORD STREET, WC1A 1BH.

The Old Crown is a unique building located on the corner of Museum Street and New Oxford Street. Dating back to 1852 and full of old world charm. The pub is open across three floors and offers a whimsical escape from the busy streets.

Once inside the warmth and history of the building surround you.

Located in a desirable central London location, The Old Crown is served by both Tottenham Court Road and Holborn tube stations. During the daytime the venue benefits from tourist footfall due to its positioning between The British Museum and Covent Garden. The Old Crown is a favorite amongst the media and marketing firms located in the vicinity who make up the majority of our regulars.

The venue also benefits from a unique late license on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights allowing it to stay open until 3am
